THE KAUFMANN STORE

Kaufmann & Company 4th and Broad Sts. Richmond, Va.

THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1914

Any of the acticles advertised may be ordered by mail or telephone. Call Madison 984.

The Maxixe Scarf

At $2.98 they are showing something really new in Scarfs on the first floor. "The Maxixe," as it is called, is the most appropriate Seart for use with dancing gowns that we can recall ever having seen. Of sheer Maline trimmed with velvet in black, white or ecru.

Main Floor.

Blouses at $1.00 --- A Continued Sale

are exact copies of our $2.00 and $3.00 Blouses-but specially marked for the Basement Sale.

Some of Marquisette with bands of Val. lace and fancy collar; others with colored embroidered voile with pointed collar, finished with lace; three quarter sleeves and fancy cuffs. Both patterns in sizes 34 to 44.

Socks For the Youngsters

Sun getting hotter-days growing just a little bit uncomfortable-why wait till summer is in full swing before buying those socks for the youngsters? Practical and dainty right now. Some at 25c and others at 121/2c. Here is the story

Children's Silk Socks. with lisle toe and heel and lisle ribbed tops-in white only, 25c.

Others with fancy tops in all colors, and also Roman stripes and plaids at 121/20

Social and Personal

One of the handsomest functions of the spring season was the stag entertainment given hast evening by John G. Walker at his residence, 201 West Franklin Street, in honor of Henry C. Stuart, Governor of Virginia. About 1200 of the most prominent men of the city and State were invited to meet Governor Stuart, and the beautiful rooms of the Walker home were banked the groom, who were a lace dress with quantities of spring blossoms, against background of trailing vires, shaded likelis and palms. In the single spring the spring through the groom, where a buffet supper was narriessus. Misses Mary Jones Conrad and Maria Washington Harrison were a light of Bloking longer wearing hosiery by insisting on when Miss Mabel Littis, daughter of Lieutenant James Gittings Littig, United States Navy, and Mrs. Littig, became the bride of Walter J. Harrison, of Leesburg. The church was elaborately decorated in eathedral candles, palms and April blossoms.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in an exquisite costume of imported lyory quisite costume of imported ivery charmense. The hodice was draped in chantilly lace and chiffon, and embroidered in pearls and brilliants. Shower an old family bridat veil, the lace cap having occu brought from the

"COLONIAL PUMPS" Perfection in Style and Quality, $3.00 to $5.00.

with quantities of spring blossons, against bethercound of tenting vines, shaded lights and palms. In the displaying the process of the proce for an extended wedding journey.

for an extended wedding journey.

Conquest—Lowndes.

Mrs. Charles D. Lowndes, of "Gamble's

Hill." Lawyer's Hill, Md., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Ellise Gamble, to Pleasanton Laws

Conquest, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. P.
L. Conquest, of this city. No date has as yet been announced for the wedding. Miss Lowndes is a sister of Miss as yet been announced for the wedding. Miss Lowndes is a sister of Miss Lettita Lowndes and Cary Gamblo, Edward Breeklaridge, Charles H. G. and Robert Glynn Lowndes, all of Balti-

To Visit Here.

Mrs. Themas J. (Stonewall) Inclesion, widow of the great Confederate chieffain, will arrive in Richmond shortly to be the horored guest at the Jackson celebration here next Wednessay evening. Mrs. Jackson, who will be accompanied by her granddaughter, Mrs. Preston, and her two great grandchildren, will stay at the Jefferson Hotel ouring her visit to Richmond. ouring her visit to Richmond.

Children's School $1

Dabney—Turpla.

A brilliant wedding of much interest to society here is that of Miss Eugenia Turpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ralston Turpin, to William Taylor Dabney, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dabney, of this city, The ceremory which was a fashionable event, was celebrated last evening at 9 o'clock in Christ Episcopal Church, Maccon, Ga., Rev. W. R. Bunting, assisted by Rev. J. A. French, of Alabama, uncle of the groom, officiating The church was banked with Easter Illies and Cathedral candles, and an orchestra played the wedding music, rendering an elaborate program during the half-hour the company of guests was assembling.

The bride's wedding dress was a wonderful affair of whits breaded guests was assembling.

The bride's wedding dress was a wonderful affair of white broaded crepe meteor and lace, and she wore a tulle veil, with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of lilles of the valley, and her only ornament was the groom's gift, a diamond brooch. Mr. Turpin gave his daughter away. The maid of honor was Miss Frances Turpin. Joseph Montgomery, of this city, acted as best man. The bridesmaids included Misses Monica Dempsey, Norma Humphries, Helen Wimberly, of Macon, and Blanche Pepper, of Winston-Salem, N. C., and the ushers were Messrs. John A. Clarke, Ernest Moseley and Frank Corley, of Richmond, and William B. Brooks, of Macon. The costumes worn by the mail of honor and the bridesmalds were fashioned of green crepe de chine, with overdresses of green tulle, and they carried huge bouquets of Easter Illies. The flower girls, Coell Turpin and Antoinette Smith, wore white lace dresses with sushes and bows of tulle, and they carried white rosebuds.

A reception was held at the home of carried white rosebuds.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony at the church. Decorations were in lilies and palms, and the walls were festooned with Southern smilax and Easter Illies. Mr. and Mrs. Dabney have gone North on their wedding trip, and after May 25 will be at home in Richmond, at 2007 Monument Avenue.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dabney, of this city, parents of the groom. Mr. Pabney entertained the bridal jarrity at the Dempsey Hotel Monday evening.

at the Dempsey Hotel Monday evening.
Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. S. Spigel, of Norfolk, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eisther Spigel, to her cousin, S. Spigel, formerly of this city, but now of Roanoke. No date has as yet been announced for the wedding.
Buck from Old Point.
Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Isaacs have returned to their apartment at the Chesterield, after spending the weekend at the Chamberlin Hotel at Old Point Comfort, Mr. and Mrs. Isaacs were joined at Old Point for their stay. Nore by Dr. and Mrs. Edward Hamilton Squibbs, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who are en route for Washington, after visiting relatives in Richmond and Charleston, S. C.

Chinese Eyening.

Very attractive Chinese invitations have been sent out for a "Chinese Evening," which will be held under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Paul of the Episcopal Churches here. The affair will take place to-morrow evening in St. James's Parish-house. Or, and Mrs. Edmund Lee Woodward, who have just returned from China, are directing the presentation of Chinese childlife. It will be an exceedingly interesting event.

childlife it will be an exceedingly interesting event.
Club Fatertains.
McGill Auditorium was prettily decornted last evening, when the Catholic Woman's Club made its debut, so to speak, at an expertainment given by the members to well friends. The occasion was honoral by the presence of the Right Reverend D. J. O'Conneil, History of Richmond, who, after an introductory address by Miss Agnes Ferriter explaining the purposes of the organization, expressed his hearty sympathy with the movement, and in a few strong sentences outlined the work he believed could be accomplished by such a body of women. Following the bishop's remarks, a delightful program of music and readings was rendered by some of the best local tallent, including Mrs. J. W. Rowe Mrs. M. B. Coffman, Mrs. A. W. Marteustein, Miss D. Mitchell, Miss Anita Kirkwood, Miss Marie Leahey, Miss D. Baker and Messrs. C. Canepa and A. W. Martenstein, Returned From House Party.

and Charles G. Harris.

NOTASEME Perfect-Process Hosiery

PURE SILK - 50c AT ALL DEALERS

Elegant Wedding Gifts The Nowlan Company

Are headquarters for Elegant Gifts of Fine Gold and Sterling Silver, and their selection for this season complises many beautiful articles, such as will not be found in other stocks, at prices more reasonable than ever be-

Leading Jewelers, 921 East Main Street.

Country Butterbeans, In. ....... Se

S. Ullman's Son

1820-1822 East Main Street, 506 E. Marshall Street.

Don't experiment with refrigerators. Buy an Alaska now. Prices, $7.50 up.

JURGENS Adams and Broads Streets.

HALHIMER'S OF PHAGAN MURDER

Terry Cloth Bath Robes Factory, With Crime.

For Spring and Summer Uses

Special Values Offered

Terry Bath Robes, in the popular stripe effects. Special... $2.98

A heavier grade in attractive patterns and washable colors. Special, $3.48 $3.98

An exceptional quality in the brocade effect. A robe that will last for years. $4.98 residence of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Ware, of 2024 Floyd Avenue, when their daughter, Miss Ellen Branch Ware, was married to Fenton Gilver Gilliam, of Newport News. The pariors were decorated in pains and ferns, and little Miss Ellste Ware, sister of the bride, played Menuelssohn's 'Wedding March' as the bridai party descented the starway. The bride wore a handsome traveling gown of blue cloth with a modish hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lines of the valley. She entered with her sister, Miss Fannie Lou Ware, who was maid of honor. Miss Ware was gowned in yellow crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of yellow snaparagons. They were met at the improvised altar by the groom and his best man, Charles Marshall, of Newport News. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. R. Potts, paster of Monument Methodist Church.

Lovers of good music are looking forward with great pleasure to the concert to be given to-night at 8 o'clock in the lecture-room of the Leigh Street Haptist Church by the Riemmond College Glee Club. A number of concerts have been given by the club this season to large audiences.

Charity Dansaut.

Fashionable society is looking forward with the greatest interest and enthusiasm to the dansant which will be held at 9 elook in the balfroom of the Jefferson Hotel on Thursday evening, April 30. The affair is under the direction and patronage of the Auxiliary to the Children's Ward of the Memorial Hospital, and its for the benshit of that charity. The auxiliary includes in its membership some of the city, and the dansant will be one of the most interesting society functions of the spring sonson. Miss French Patton and several other well-known dancers of Richmond will give a number of exhibition dances during the cut-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Brand and Miss Parker, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Carey Humpreys and Mrs. Sayre Thompson, of Brandy: Mr. and Mrs. Addison Hudson, H. Newhouse and Awbrey Johnson, of Warrenton; Benjamin Purvis and William Phillips, of Frederleksburg; McChesney Johnson, of Warrenton; Benjamin Purvis and William Prillips, of Norfolk, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha.

Joseph T. Moore and his grand-daughter, Miss Bancroft, of Sandy Spring, Md., will arrive to-day to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, at "Moreland Farm."

Diuguid—Denmend.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
West Point, Va., April 22.—St. John's Episcopal Church was the scene to-day of a beautiful wedding, when Miss Jessle Dresser Denmeade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey Denmend, of West Point, became the bride of Frank West Point, became the bride of Frank Diuguid, of Lynchburg, Va. The ceremony took place at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. E. Evans officiating. Miss Florine Henderson presiding at the organ. To the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" the bridal party entered the church, the bride with her father, James Harvey Denmead, who gave her away. Mrs. J. H. Leath, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. W. Woody Dickerson, of Lynchburg, was best man. The four bridesmalds were man. The four bridesmaids were Misses Naomi Ford and Elizabeth Lips-comb, of Richmond; Gertrude Diuguid, Fayetteville Company Volunteers.

Wilmington, N. C., April 22.—The Fayetteville Independent Light Infasiry, which has served in every war in which the United States has been engaged since its organization in 1793, to-day offered Governor Craig its services if needed in the Mexican conflict.
The company is not now a part of the National Guard.

merly Employed at Pencil

before the Superior Court this morning, but, on account of a death in the family of a counsel for the defense, the postponement was made. The ex-traordinary motion will be heard to-morrow, and the motion to set aside the Ynneey-Newhouse.

Yancey—Newhouse.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Culpeper, Va., April 22.—A marriage of more than local interest took place before a brilliant assemblage in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church here at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Wille St. Clair, the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Silas Mortimer Newhouse, became the bride of William Miller Yancey, the sen of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Yancey, of "Arlington." Rev. Kensey Johns Hammond, rector of St. Sta. Yancey, of "Arlington," Rev. Kensey Johns Hammond, rector of St. Ste-phen's, performed the ceremony, and Miss Mary Macey and William Phillips gave a song recital while the guests were assembling. Miss Elizabeth Hooper, presided at the organ, and rendered the wedding marches.

The bride entered the church with her brother. Hamilton Newhouse, of Warrenton, by whom she was given in marriage. Miss Georgia Newholes.

warringe. Miss Georgie Newhouse was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Sifterd Friend Clarke, of "Afton," was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Heien Macoy, of Cuipeper, and Miss Maude Nelson Parker, of Wash-

Jac groom was attended by Mercer Jones, of Culpeper, as best man, and the ushers included J. Archie Goodloe and Clifford Clarke, of Culpeper; Reid Pierce, of Lynchburg, and Rufus G. Roberts, of Shelby, N. C.

Among the out-of-town guests were:
Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Brand and Miss Parker, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Norris Thompson, of Roanoke; Mr.
and Mrs. Carey Humpreys and Mr.
and Mrs. Sayre Thompson, of Brandy;
Mr. and Mrs. Addison Hudson, H. Newhouse and Awbrey Johnson, of Warrenton; Benjamin Purvis and William Phillips, of Fredericksburg; McChesney Jeffries, of Norfolk, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rixey, of Catalpha. Among the out-of-town guests were the groom's family since pre-Revolu-

Special Jury Summoned.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., April 22.—A special jury from Fairfax County has been In and Out of Tewn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Scott have returned from New York, where they have been visiting friends.

Misses Mildred Grice and Janet Jones have returned from Lexington, where they attended the dances at Virginia Military Institute and Washington and Lee University.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., April 22.—The South tedmont Medical Society, in session ore, yesterday elected the following Misses Ellora E. Chapin is visiting ther brother, W. E. Chapin in Atlanta, Ga.

Diuguld—Denmead.

[Specfal to The Times-Dispatch.]

West Point, Va., April 22.—St. John's Episcopal Church was the scene to-day of a beautiful wedding, when Miss Lands December 1.

CHALONER GETS INCREASE

Allowed by Court to Spend $24,000 Instead of $17,000 a Year.
[Special to The Times Dispatch.] New York, April 22.—John Armstrong Chaloner, of Virginia, has obtained an order from Justice Giegerich permitting him to spend $21,000 a year from his income, instead of only $17,000, as formerly.

Chaloner, adjudged an incompetent as formerly.

Chaloner, adjudged an incompetent in this State, lives on his farm in Virginia. He has an estate yielding an annual income of about $40,000. Chaloner told the court he had $24,000 to spend when he was twenty-one years old, and could see no reason why he should not be allowed this sum now.

NEWS OF ASHLAND

Charles H. Desmead, Jr., and Henry
P. Denmead, of West Point.

No special invitations being sent in town, the church was open to all friends of the contracting parties. The following were among the out-of-town guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Diuguid, parents of the groom, of Lynchburg: Mrs. Judson Evans, Miss Certrude Diuguid and George Diuguid and Woody pickerson, of Lynchburg: Miss Editm interaction of Lynchburg: Mrs. Diuguid and George Diuguid and Woody pickerson, of Lynchburg: Miss Editm interaction of the promote the first the figure offered is an exceptionally good one, considering the present condition of the bond narket.

Mrs. John Addison has gone to New York; Miss Austina Lipscomb, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Diuguid left on the collect train, via Richmond, for a lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Diuguid left on the 5 o'clock train, vin Richmond, for a trip to Atlantic City, N. J., and New York. On the return they will live in Lynchburg, in which city Mr. Diuguid is a prominent business man.

| Fingagement Announced. | Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.] | Lynchburg. Va., April 22—Mrs. Rebecca S. Marshall, of this city, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Wilkins Marshall, to Rev. Alvin Boyes Dupuy, of Warwick, Md. The marriage will take place here during the early summer.

| POLLARD ACCEPTS INVITATION. | Will Deliver Commencement Address at Lawrenceville High School. | Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.] | Lawrenceville, Va., April 22.—Attorney-tieneral John Garland Pollard has accepted an invitation to address the senior class of Lawrenceville High School. | Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.] | Lawrenceville, Va., April 22.—Attorney-tieneral John Garland Pollard has accepted an invitation to address the senior class of Lawrenceville High School. | Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.] | Lawrenceville, Va., April 22.—Attorney-tieneral John Garland Pollard has accepted an invitation to address the senior class of Lawrenceville High School. | Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.] | Lawrenceville Company Volunteers. | Wilmington, N. C., April 22.—Tito. | No. 2 | No. 2

Wilmington, N. C., April 22.—The Fayetteville Independent Light Infarty which has zerved in every war in which the United States has been enjaged since its organization in 1792, to-day offered Governor Craig Its services if needed in the Mexican conflict. The company is not now a part of the National Guard.

Infantry in Fine Trim.
Durham, N. C., April 22.—The Durham Light Infantry, under command of Captain Sydney C. Chambers, is practicing nighting, and is now in fine trim, ready for the first orders to mobolize and go to the front.

Kennedy—Rosenberger.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va., April 22.—At Holy Cross Catholic Church Monday Miss agnes Cecilin Rosenberger, of Bedford County, was married to William J. Kennedy, of this city. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Edward M. Tearney, paster of the church. Miss Julia McCarren was the maid of honor, and Robert Bryant was the best man. After a trip to his former home in Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will be at home April 30 at 314 Clay Street.

ARRIVATION AND THE PARTY OF THE

Detective Charges Negro, For- Captain Schindel Makes Official Visit to V. P. I. to Witness Manoeuvres.

ling the case for several weeks. The detective was employed by friends of Frank after the latter's conviction. The report asserts that Mary Phagret of homicidal details, dress parade, guard mount, inspection of quarters, science and the type, and charges a negro, formerly employed at the National Pencil Factory as a sweeper, with the crime. The hearings on the extraordinary motion for a new trial on account of but those who witnessed the manoeutres are satisfied that the Tech batters conviction. motion for a new trial on account of newly discovered evidence, and the manufacture of the set aside the verdict in the case, because Frank was not in court when it was read, to-day were post-been commandant of cadets at the Virginia Pilytechnic Jestinia Court for three commandants.

ments in West Virginia 1 p to $400,000. Charleston, W. Va., April 22.—Having considered 23,000 claims, and paid out Chesapeake and Ohlo Railway in West Virginia, above the legal rate, while the suit to test the constitutionality of the 2-cent fare law was in the courts,
the commission appointed to redeem
the excess fare coupons has commenced to wind up it to be the commenced to wind up it to be the commenced to wind up it to be the commenced to wind up it to be the commenced to wind up it to be the commenced to wind up it to be the commenced to see the commenc to wind up its business. It is expect Thursin Sydnor Then Fatally Cuts His Wife.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Scottsburg, Va., April 22—Thursin Sydnor, who resides three miles from here, cut the threat of his brother-inlaw, Charles Saddler, and slashed his divorced wife so badly she will die, Sydnor went to Saddler's home, and, coming up behind the latter, drew a knite across his throat, almost severing his head from his body. He then attacked the woman, inflicting fatal leduries. Sydnor made his escape.

Engagement Rings

To the groom—the selection of an engagement ring—becomes a problem.

A visit to the Schwarzschild store turns this task into a pleasure. We offer helpful suggestions combined with an assortment-not equalled in the South.

Schwarzschild Brothers Richmond's Lending Jewelers,

THE REAL PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

Blacksburg, Va. April 22.—Summer classes will be conducted at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute during the Jects, though not in all, now embraced in the regular college curriculum. Students who are behind in their classes for any reason will be enabled to catch up with their work, and it is believed that this school will be advantageous to prospective students who may fail of the regular entrance requirements on any one or even two subjects.

At the same time these courses will to wind up its business. It is expected the commission will bring its total payments to $100,000 before the remaining claims are acted upon.

MURDERS BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Thursin Sydnor Then Fatally Cuts His freshman and sophomore French, German and Spanish, types and breeds, live steck management, feeds and feeding.

Company Rendy for War.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., April 22.—Captain W. O.
Buckles, of the Cox Light Infantry Company, of Bristol, Tenn., reports his company equipped and ready for war.
This company is a part of the Third
Tennessee Regiment, whose services have been tendered.

Klein's Removal Sale

We are discontinuing this line of Clark Jewel Gas Ranges and New Process Oil Cook Stoves.

Clark Jewel Gas Range

This range has 5 burners, 1 simmer; enamel grease and broiler pans and 181/2-inch oven and glass doors. Sale

$18.25

This Sale is Strictly Cash

N. Klein & Son, Inc.

Ceresota Cake Contest

FREE FREE FREE FREE

FREE Friday, May

FREE FREE FREE FREE

FREE

Phone Monroe 1380

The Only GAS RANGE Pr duced By Richmond Capital and Labor.

"Tip Top Standard"

Every Range GUARANTEED by Southern Stove Works

Insures by Patented Devices Absolute Economy and Safety.

Manufacturers of All Kinds of Stoves.

Sold by Leading Dealers. "Tip Top" Quality Insures Satisfaction